I declare that each and every person listed as an author meets conditions 1, 2 and 3. 3. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

I hereby declare that:

- I acknowledge that a conflict of interest exists when an author (or the author's institution) has financial or personal relationships that inappropriately influence (bias) his or her actions (such relationships are also known as dual commitments, competing interests, or competing loyalties). These relationships vary from being negligible to having great potential for influencing judgment. Not all relationships represent true conflicts of interest. The potential for conflict of interest may exist regardless of whether a person believes that the relationship affects his or her scientific judgment. Financial relationships (such as employment, consultancies, stock ownership, honoraria, and paid expert testimony) are the most easily identifiable conflicts of interest and the most likely to undermine the credibility of the journal, the authors, and science itself. However, conflicts may occur for other reasons, such as personal relationships, academic competition, and intellectual passion.

I certify that:

- all funding, other financial support, and material support for this work are clearly identified in the manuscript.

Moreover, I declare that (check 1 of 2):

- no conflicts of interest exist;
- conflicts of interest exist and are clearly indicated at the end of the article.

I hereby declare that:

- I acknowledge that patients have a right to privacy that should not be violated without informed consent. Identifying information (e.g., names, initials, or hospital numbers) should not be published in written descriptions, photographs, or pedigrees unless the information is needed for scientific purposes and the patient (or parent or guardian) gives written informed consent for publication.

I declare that:

- if patients identifying information was included in the article, written informed consent was obtained.
